

National Digital Photography Competition 2023

THEME "KEEP TALKING"

National Photography Competition will be digital entries only. This is to encourage more entries and to provide a more convenient way for members to enter. Photographs will be judged individually but competitors can submit more than one entry (a maximum of three).

ELIGIBILITY

1. The Competition is open to full bona fide members of any Young Farmers Club affiliated to the Scottish Association of Young Farmers Clubs.
2. Entries are invited for two sections: Section 1 – members under 19, Section 2 – members under 28
3. Members cannot have attained their 28th birthday by the date of the national competition.

CRITERIA

- (a) Composition
- (b) Visual Impact
- (c) Relevance to theme

PROCEDURE

1. Up to three photographs taken by the individual entering the competition can be submitted electronically to SAYFC. All entries must be submitted in digital format.
2. All entries must be the original work of the competitor with them having sole ownership of the copyright. The digital image must not be altered, enhanced or contain titles, captions or borders.
3. All photographs must be a minimum of 1MB.
4. By entering the competition, you give SAYFC the right to use your images online (social media and website) and in print. The sponsor may wish to use the photographs on their own publicity material.
5. All images will be sent electronically to the judge/s who will be appointed by SAYFC.
6. The judge/s will short list ten images from each section (Juniors and Seniors), which will be printed and displayed within the Young Farmers Centre highlighting the prize winners.
7. Entries which haven't been short listed will be shown on an electronic screen within the Young Farmers Centre at the Royal Highland Show.
8. Images should be sent through to SAYFC by Friday 26th May 2023.

ENTRIES

1. Each competitor can submit a maximum of three photographs, with these all being judged individually.
2. Photos can be submitted from 01/01/23 and if a competitor wishes to enter more than one entry, these do not have to be submitted at the same time.

A competitor will be disqualified from the competition if their photograph contains inappropriate content. This will be in the opinion of SAYFC staff and National Board members.
