North East of Scotland Farm Management Association – Young Farmers Quiz 2023

The NEFMA are holding our FMA Young Farmers Quiz once again this year after our two year break. This is to be on Thursday 25th May 2023 at Lochter Activity Centre, Oldmeldrum at 7.15pm. The closing date for entries is Friday 19th May.

Teams for both Juniors and Seniors may be entered, each comprising a maximum of four members. Senior teams may include one associate member, if required. Clubs must be from within the North East area – Shetland club can join virtually, provided they have a suitable adjudicator present. There is no maximum number of teams per club.

The quiz will comprise the following nine rounds, in which all teams will participate.

Rounds

Initial rounds will comprise the following sections. Each section will comprise 10 questions, worth two points each. A partially correct answer may receive one point in the sole discretion of the adjudicator.

Rounds will include questions from the following topics: Carbon and Energy, Arable, Pigs and Poultry, Farm Management, Beef and Sheep, Valuation and General Knowledge.

The highest scoring junior team from these rounds will win the junior trophy and cash prizes. The top two senior teams will then compete against each other in a final "buzzer" round for the senior trophy and cash prizes.

Buzzer Round Scoring

Each correct answer is worth two points.

In the buzzer round, any incorrectly answered question may be offered to the opposing team, who will receive a bonus of one point on giving a correct answer. If a team interrupts a question and does not provide an answer within a reasonable time, they will have a point deducted and the whole question will then be offered to the opposing team who will receive one bonus point if able to answer correctly. During the buzzer round, conferring will be allowed and the quizmaster's decision on any answer and time allowed for answer will be final.

Prizes
